

Leonardo Agusti, Argentina

Leonardo Antonio Agusti began running at age 15 following his father's footsteps. Since 1966 he developed an impressive career with 1350 victories -including several National and Breeder's Cups-, led several driver statistics in Argentina, and raced on different tracks around the world - including France, Hungary, Belgium, Spain, Brazil and United States (Pompano Park, The Meadows, Yonkers Raceway and Meadowlands).

He is currently ACAAT President ("Association of Argentine Breeders of American Trotter"), and returns to Pompano Park to participate in 2019's FEGAT ("Fédération Européenne des Gentlemen et Cavalières du Trot"), where he participated in 2016 and 2018 editions, and won last Driver's World Championship.
